(b) release or indemnify the authorised deposit-taking institution from or against any claim, or action or other proceeding, arising directly or indirectly out of the drawing of that cheque.

(4) Except with the authority of the general meeting, a payment of an amount exceeding $30 is not to be made from the funds of the Association otherwise than by cheque drawn on the Association's account.

(5) A cheque is not to be drawn on the Association's account except for the purpose of making a payment that has been authorised by the committee.

(6) A cheque, draft, bill of exchange, promissory note or other negotiable instrument is to be signed by two of the three signatories as directed at the AGM.

8. Auditor (subject to waiver available through the Dept. of Justice)

(1) At each annual general meeting, the members of the Association present at the meeting are to appoint a person as the auditor of the Association.

(2) If an auditor is not appointed at an annual general meeting under subrule (1), the committee is to appoint a person as the auditor of the Association as soon as practicable after that annual general meeting.

(3) The auditor is to hold office until the next annual general meeting and is eligible for re-appointment.

(4) the auditor may only be removed from office by special resolution and after such vacancy or after any casual vacancy, the committee is to appoint a person to fill the vacancy pending agreement at the next general meeting.

9. Audit of accounts (subject to waiver available through the Dept. of Justice)

(1) The auditor is to audit the financial affairs of the Association at least once in each financial year of the Association.

(2) The auditor, after auditing the financial affairs of the Association for a particular financial year of the Association, is to –

- (a) certify as to the correctness of the accounts of the Association; and
- (b) at the next annual general meeting, provide a written report to the members of the Association present at that meeting.

(3) In the report and in certifying to the accounts, the auditor is to –

- (a) specify the information, if any, that he or she has required under subrule (5)(b) and obtained; and
- (b) state whether, in his or her opinion, the accounts exhibit a true and correct view of the financial position of the Association according to the information at his or her disposal; and
- (c) state whether the rules relating to the administration of the funds of the Association have been observed.

(4) The Treasurer of the Association is to deliver to the auditor a list of all the accounting records, books and accounts of the Association.

(5) The auditor may –

- (a) have access to the accounting records, books and accounts of the Association; and
- (b) require from any member of the Association any information the auditor considers necessary for the performance of his or her duties; and
- (c) examine any member of the committee, or any servant of the Association, in relation to the accounting records, books and accounts of the Association.

10. Annual general meeting

(1) The Association is to hold an annual general meeting each year.

(2) An annual general meeting is to be held on any day (being not later than 3 months after the end of the financial year of the Association) the committee determines.

(10) On any question arising at a meeting of the committee, a member of the committee (including the chairperson) has one vote only.

(11) Despite subrule (10), in the case of an equality of votes, the chairperson has a second or casting vote.

(12) Written notice of each committee meeting is to be served on each member of the committee by –

(a) giving it to the member during business hours before the day on which the meeting is to be held; or

(b) leaving it, during business hours before the day on which the meeting is to be held, at the member's postal or residential address or place or address of business or employment last known to the server of the notice; or

(c) sending it by post to the person's postal or residential address or address of business or employment last known to the server of the notice in sufficient time for it to be delivered to that address in the ordinary course of post before the day on which the meeting is to be held; or

(d) faxing it to the member's fax number; or

(e) emailing it to the member's email address.

26. Disclosure of interests

(1) If a member of the committee or a member of a subcommittee has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter being considered, or about to be considered, by the committee or subcommittee at a meeting, the member is to, as soon as practicable after the relevant facts come to the member's knowledge, disclose the nature of the interest to the committee.

(2) If at a meeting of the committee or a subcommittee a member of the committee or subcommittee votes in respect of any matter in which the member has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest, that vote is not to be counted.

27. Subcommittees

(1) The general meeting may –

(a) appoint a subcommittee; and

ISSUE 2

(b) prescribe the powers and functions of that subcommittee.

(2) The general meeting may co-opt any person as a member of a subcommittee without voting rights, whether or not the person is a member of the Association.

(3) A quorum for the transaction of the business of a meeting of the subcommittee is 3 appointed members entitled to vote.

(4) As directed by the Association, the Secretary is to convene meetings of a subcommittee.

(5) Any question arising at a meeting of a subcommittee is to be determined –

(a) on a show of hands; or

(b) if demanded by a member, by a poll taken at that meeting in the manner the chairperson determines.

(6) On any question arising at a meeting of a subcommittee, a member of the subcommittee (including the chairperson) has one vote only.

(7) Written notice of each subcommittee meeting is to be served on each member of the subcommittee by –

(a) giving it to the member during business hours before the day on which the meeting is to be held; or

(b) leaving it, during business hours before the day on which the meeting is to be held, at the member's postal or residential address or place or address of business or employment last known to the server of the notice; or

(c) sending it by post to the person's postal or residential address or address of business or employment last known to the server of the notice in sufficient time for it to be delivered to that address in the ordinary course of post before the day on which the meeting is to be held; or

(d) faxing it to the member's fax number; or

(e) emailing it to the member's email address.

28. Annual subscription

(1) The annual subscription payable by members of the Association shall be as determined at the AGM

(2) The members of the Association may alter the annual subscription by special resolution.

(3) The annual subscription of a member of the Association is due and payable on or before the first day of each financial year of the Association.

29. Service of notices and requisitions

Except as otherwise provided by these rules, a document may be served under these rules on a person by –

(a) giving it to the person; or

(b) leaving it at, or sending it by post to, the person's postal or residential address or place or address of business or employment last known to the server of the document; or

(c) faxing it to the person's fax number; or

(d) emailing it to the person's email address.

30. Expulsion of members

(1) The general meeting may expel a member from the Association if, in the opinion of the general meeting, the member is guilty of conduct detrimental to the interests of the Association.

(2) The expulsion of a member under subrule (1) does not take effect until the later of the following:

(a) the fourteenth day after the day on which a notice is served on the member under subrule (3);

(b) if the member exercises his or her right of appeal under this rule, the conclusion of the special general meeting convened to hear the appeal.

(3) If the general meeting expels a member from the Association, the Secretary of the Association, without undue delay, is to cause to be served on the member a notice in writing –

(a) stating that the general meeting has expelled the member; and

(b) specifying the grounds for the expulsion; and

(c) informing the member of the right to appeal against the expulsion under rule 33.

31. Appeal against expulsion

(1) A member may appeal against an expulsion under rule 32 by serving on the Secretary of the Association, within 14 days after the service of a notice under rule 32(3), a requisition in writing demanding the convening of a special general meeting for the purpose of hearing the appeal.

(2) On receipt of a requisition, the Secretary is to immediately notify the committee of the receipt.

(3) The committee is to cause a special general meeting to be held within 21 days after the day on which the requisition is received.

(4) At a special general meeting convened for the purpose of hearing an appeal under this rule –

(a) no business other than the question of the expulsion is to be transacted; and

(b) the committee may place before the meeting details of the grounds of the expulsion and the reasons for the expulsion; and

(c) the expelled member must be given an opportunity to be heard; and

(d) the members of the Association who are present are to vote by secret ballot on the question of whether the expulsion should be lifted or confirmed.

(5) If at the special general meeting a majority of the members present vote in favour of the lifting of the expulsion –

(a) the expulsion is lifted; and

(b) the expelled member is entitled to continue as a member of the Association.

(6) If at the special general meeting a majority of the members present vote in favour of the confirmation of the expulsion –

(a) the expulsion takes effect; and

(b) the expelled member ceases to be a member of the Association.

32. Disputes

(1) A dispute between a member of the Association, in the capacity as a member, and the

ISSUE 2

Association is to be determined by arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Commercial Arbitration Act 1986.

(2) This rule does not affect the operation of rule 31.

33. Seal of Association

(1) The seal of the Association is to be in the form of a rubber stamp inscribed with the name of the Association encircling the word "Seal".

(2) The seal is not to be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of the committee.

(3) The affixing of the seal is to be attested by the signatures of –

(a) two members of the committee; or

(b) one member of the committee and the public officer of the Association or any other person the committee may appoint for that purpose.

(4) If a sealed instrument has been attested under subrule (3), it is presumed, unless the contrary is shown, that the seal was affixed to that instrument by the authority of the committee.
